MORECAMBE BAY

Centrally located by Morecambe's Promenade, with its unbeatable views towards the Lakeland hills, a visit to the Festival Market is one of the highlights that the town has to offer for shoppers on the look-out for bargains by the sea.

With more than 100 stalls selling an enormous selection of products all under one roof, you are sure to find what you are looking for at the Festival Market in Morecambe. After an hour or two of bargain hunting, you can take a rest in one of the market's welcoming cafes serving homemade meals and cakes before setting off on foot to discover what else Morecambe has to offer.

Within walking distance are a number of wonderful iconic buildings including the famous Midland Hotel, the Winter Gardens as well as five miles of promenade offering fresh sea air, stunning scenery, interesting features and numerous pieces of award winning public artwork along the way.

Don't forget to bring your camera to capture that famous pose alongside the world famous Eric Morecambe statue as well as the stunning views of the Lakeland hills as you enjoy a leisurely walk along the Stone Jetty.

There's plenty on offer for families too with a cinema and indoor trampoline park close by as well as Morecambe's premier entertainment venue, The Platform which boasts a feast of events for all ages all year round.

All in all, you're sure to find a warm welcome and enjoy a great day out when you visit Morecambe's Festival Market and if you happen to be visiting during one of Morecambe's many summer festivals you'll be guaranteed a memorable day.
