Artlebeck Close, Caton, Lancaster. LA2 5RJ

About Artlebeck Close

Artlebeck is situated in the pretty rural village of Caton, nestled in the Lune Valley, north of Lancaster.

The village has everything you need including a doctors, chemist, Co-op, hairdressers, and a couple of pubs.

It is a very peaceful place, with a great community spirit and everyone is very friendly.

It is on a local bus route for buses into Lancaster or nearby villages including Kirby Lonsdale and Ingleton.

There are plenty of enjoyable walks in this area including those along the River Lune which is also a cycle path which takes you into Lancaster.

Most of the grounds at Artlebeck are communal and looked after by our grounds maintenance team. Residents who enjoy gardening have a private back garden that they can tend to themselves.
