With more than 100 stalls selling an enormous selection of products, you're sure to find what you are looking for in this centrally located market close to Morecambe Promenade. After an hour or two of bargain hunting, you can enjoy homemade meals and cakes being served one of the market's cafes before setting off on foot to discover what else Morecambe has to offer – much of which is within easy reach. If you happen to be visiting during one of Morecambe's many summer festivals or those held annually at the market, you'll be guaranteed a memorable day.
